(Primary)

Billericay Teaching School Alliance
Unlocking Potential
National Teaching School
National Teaching School designated by National College for Teaching & Leadership

Aim

This course is for those new to teaching phonics to enhance phonics provision in their setting without relying on a scheme of work. The information shared will focus on how to sustain high standards to also impact on reading and writing.

Why is this course for you?

This session explores key elements to the teaching of phonics to provide opportunities for all children to make excellent progress. If you are new to teaching or new to Year 1, this session is for you.

Content

Delegates will learn about best practice in phonics and gain new ideas to use within the classroom.
The following will also be explored during the session:

- Practical approaches to enable all children to make progress
- Phonic screening
- Making links between phonics and reading and writing

Who are the Trainers?

Members of the Senior Leadership team at St Peter's Catholic Primary School, Billericay will deliver the session. They have a wealth of experience in the delivery of phonics and achieving excellent results.

How will my School benefit?

Delegates will leave the session confident in their ability to teach phonics using best practice strategies shared. They will gain knowledge on how to succeed in phonics in their school setting and ways in which to positively impact on reading and writing.

How will my Students benefit?

Students will benefit from clear planning structure of phonics and high expectations which will impact on their overall literacy skills.
